For registered horses to be ridden by Adult, Associate or Junior Members.

This competition is for teams of two or more competitors as stated in the schedule.

If a competitor makes an error for which the normal penalty is elimination, the bell is rung and the next member of the team takes over the baton and completes the course before starting his/her own round. If the last competitor in the team makes such an error, the first member of the team takes over and so on.

If the baton is dropped, the competitor must dismount (without penalty) recover the baton and remount before continuing his/her round or passing the baton to the next member of the team. Failure to do so incurs elimination.

The first competitor only of each team is required to cross the starting line and the last competitor only of each team to cross the finishing line.
